

Novedo acquires Elarbeten

Novedo has acquired Elarbeten i Helsingborg AB.

Elarbeten is an electrical installation company that operates in northwestern Skåne. The company was founded in 1992 in Höganäs and is now headquartered in Helsingborg.

"I am delighted with the acquisition of Elarbeten. A healthy company with a strong position in its market and a fine corporate culture. A typical Novedo company. Elarbeten will continue to be operated by CEO Simon Persson, together with Göran Lundgren", says Per-Johan Dahlgren, CEO of Novedo.

Elarbeten offers everything from project design to consultation, and conducts various types of electrical installations and repairs on both the heavy and low current sides.

"Elarbeten is characterised by a strong team spirit. We take care of each other and our distinct culture of cooperation, and take a very positive view of becoming part of something larger in Novedo, at the same time as we can continue to operate the company as previously," says Simon Persson, CEO of Elarbeten.
